

Battery Cage forever never ends forever never ends

no one else to blame
the perfect girl
getting darker
shattered

even colder inside her i'm sick of everything crush and spurn (bone crusher mix) do you even remember me now (amnesia mix) something wonderful (electro skank mix) hustler (street hustlin' mix)

we're always wasting our time trying to hurt one another saying the same things again and again always redrawing the battle lines and is there anything left to say? when we know how bad we're damaged cause at the end of the day no emotion left unravaged how much further can we go before one of us will break and it's not a question of why or how much more we can take when all the options have ended and we're both lying here bleeding we can't keep making the same mistakes that we go on repeating the future was never meant to be anything like this for you and me

it just goes on and on again no matter what i do no matter what i say you know
forever never ends
our love goes on and on again but this could never last it all just slips away you know

why am i so fucking stupid why do i always do the things i've done a million times before everything just gets out of control so fast and nothing ever seems to really last, but...

i wanted everything to be different now but it always ends up just the same i'm not even sure you know i exist though i try to resist there's no one else to blame i just keep making the same mistake and losing everything i just keep falling into the same pattern and i end up with nothing

so i'm waiting here for you wondering just when you will come through and i know that you don't know i'm here but if you did i wonder if you'd even care

i stare at the television struggling with all this indecision and everything i'm trying to forget keeps coming back to haunt me once again once again take everything that i can and then just run away because i don't know if i'll be here another day (how much more can i take) cause if you're not coming i don't know where i stand with a gun in my hand it might as well be the end of me (not much more i'm afraid) i don't want to feel like this i don't know what to do cause life isn't worth living

(by my side forever)

i'm just waiting for you to return and i'm starting to burn because i will never learn (that it's over)

you might be the only one that i will ever need you might be the perfect girl for me i want to see you i want to feel you i want to know you i want to be you

i can feel the walls are closing in on me i know there's nothing left out there to see because you have taken all of it away no point in living through another day so kill me i can feel the light going out inside overwhelmed by the pain that i cannot hide the noose around my neck the razorblade is on my skin fighting a war in my head that i cannot win someday i hope that you will see this was the only choice left up to me i used to think that the world could be mine but now i know that everything was just a waste of time to have what everyone else always got so easily when all the happiness and love was never gonna fix me

the sun goes down again for the last time i'm through hurting myself this is the last time
it's getting darker all the time

the machine rolls on so keep the lights turned off cause if this is livin i've had more than enough the darkness grows
and they're still getting stronger i just cannot take this i cannot take this any longer just keep your head down wait for the smoke to clear although i keep on trying now i know that the end is near

can all this really be happening i don't want to believe i don't wanna believe in anything this is what we're fighting for

i don't wanna survive

cause i don't have to believe i don't wanna believe anymore
